APPLICATION TO QUALIFY FOR KDA ASSISTANCE

1. The sale must be a regional event, i.e. be open to and include participation from surrounding counties. Cooperative efforts between groups or organizations are strongly recommended.
2. There must be a minimum of 100 heifers in the sale, with at least 75% of them being bred.
3. All the heifers must meet the requirements set forth in the program guidelines.
4. All Kentucky Department of Agriculture funding shall be administered through a non-profit organization.
5. All print materials (advertising, catalog, etc.) need to display the Kentucky Proud logo and state the sale is co-sponsored by The Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

Sales meeting the above set minimums are eligible for funding in addition to marketing assistance from a Kentucky Department of Agriculture representative, if available. Approval for funding will be determined by the Department of Agriculture upon receipt of application. Requirements are subject to change.
