Vendor Application

Beechmont Open Air Market – A Kentucky Proud Market
Sponsored by the Beechmont Neighborhood Association
Held at the corner of Southern Parkway and Wellington
Saturdays, 8:00 am – 12:00 pm

Market rules and guidelines

DATES: The market will run every Saturday, 8:00 am – 12:00 pm, June 9 – September 29. The Harvest Festival will take place September 22. An orientation training is held in April. All producers and artisans are asked to attend.

SET-UP: Vendors must arrive and be set-up by 8:00 am. No sales may occur before 8:00 am.

LOCATION: The market is held in the parking lot of Beechmont Baptist Church on Wellington between Southern Parkway and 3rd St. in the Beechmont neighborhood.

KY PROUD Vendors are expected to be familiar with and comply with Kentucky Proud guidelines (grown in Kentucky or within 50 miles of state border) and Kentucky Department of Agriculture rules and regulations pertaining to food handling and processing.

SALE ITEMS: Artisan products should be handmade in Kentucky. No Flea Market or Yard Sale items will be permitted.

Produce sold should be grown by the vendor and follow Kentucky Proud guidelines.

The sale of produce grown by someone other than the seller requires pre-approval. Any resold produce must meet Kentucky Proud guidelines; include signage to indicate the actual grower; and is limited to 30% of vendor's total product offering. Exceptions to this rule might be considered to provide products we have previously been unable to offer such as organics, cheese, meat, and grains.

Home produced products should be labeled properly: Labels should state: name & address of producer; product ingredients; and date produced

FEES: Farmers and producers - $75.00, due May 31, 2018
Artisans - $40 due May 31, 2018
