RULES

1. An annual license fee for the BFM must be purchased in order to sell at the market. The cost of this is $25.00. Make checks payable to the City of Bloomfield. This is for a 12x12 undesignated outside space at the above location. Being granted a license for one season does not automatically guarantee a member's license will be renewed the following year. All fees are non-refundable.
2. Registration and Fee must be submitted prior to the day of set-up. License must be posted in your booth area.
3. The BFM will be a producer-only market. RESALE IS NOT ALLOWED. Products for sales are limited to those vegetables, fruits, flowers, plants, animal products, and other agricultural products produced on land the member owns or leases. Value-added or handcrafted items are allowed as long as the product is produced by the participating vendor. The board reserves the right to make farm visits in order to ensure compliance with those rules.

4. The BMF will be limited to producers in Nelson and surrounding counties.
5. Members will determine their own pricing. However, members are expected to refrain from deliberate underselling of other members.
6. No live animals will be sold at the market.
7. Licensed members of the market will only be allowed to sell during the listed days and hours of operation. Setup will be 30 minutes before start time. Vendors may leave early but may not sell after the market closes.
8. Members will be responsible for cleaning up their area at the end of every market day.
9. Individual members are responsible for complying with all state, local, and federal laws and label or food safety and handling regulations. Product Liability insurance is heavily recommended. The BMF or the city of Bloomfield will not be held liable. Participants shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend the BFM, the City of Bloomfield against any and all claims, actions, damages, liabilities and expenses, including but not limited to attorney and other professional fees and defense costs arising from any loss of life, personal injury and/or damage to person or property occurring in, on, or about the premises or arising from any loss of life, personal injury, and/or damage to any person or property resulting from any act, omission, or negligence of the participant, his agents, employees, or invitees.
10. Members agree to comply with all BFM rules. Failure to do so will result in the revocation of their license for the season. Penalties for rule breaking:
 - 1st offense - verbal/written warning
 - 2nd offense - rejection of license
11. Any formal complaints or grievances should be submitted in writing to the Farmers' Market Committee, City of Bloomfield, P.O. Box 206, Bloomfield KY 40008.
