

Kentucky Proud Eligibility

- 1) Kentucky Proud premiums are for preview, district, and expo shows only
- 2) Exhibitors may be the breeder of the animal or have purchased a Kentucky Born animal from a Kentucky Producer.
- 3) Any animal that is born on Kentucky soil and that is displaying a Kentucky Proud ear tag is eligible for KY Proud premiums.
- 4) Market animals must have Kentucky Proud tag in place at time of validation
- 5) Breeding animals must have Kentucky Proud tag in place at time of show

Kentucky Junior Livestock Points Program

- 1) Any animal that shows at a state sponsored show is counted in the points program. This includes Kentucky Proud and Non Kentucky Proud animals.
- 2) County fairs do not count towards the points program
- 3) The Kentucky State Fair will be counted as a points show
- 4) Animals must be exhibited in one exhibitor's name the day of the show
- 5) Each time an animal is shown by a different exhibitors, or under a different breed classification, a new set of points will be started in the Kentucky Points Program database
- 6) If there are not enough entries to make a breed division, the animal will be put in an AOB class, and the points will be counted towards the animal's breed points

Kentucky Proud Points Program

The following is a list of how many shows will be counted for each exhibitor and animal. An exhibitor may participate in as many shows as their species allows, however, KDA will calculate the points from their best shows according to the following list:
