

Kentucky Proud Eligibility

- 1) Exhibitors must turn in Kentucky Proud Form on each animal each year. In order to receive Kentucky Proud premium for Preview Beef Shows, you must have your form submitted by March 31st. For Expos, District Shows and the Kentucky Fall Classic, you must submit your forms by June 1st.
- 2) Purebred stock must send a copy of registration papers with the Kentucky Proud form. (NO PENDING PAPERS!)
- 3) Kentucky Proud Premiums are for preview, district, and expo shows only.
- 4) Exhibitors may be the breeder of the animal.
- 5) Any animal that is born on Kentucky Soil is eligible for Kentucky Proud Premium.

Kentucky Junior Livestock Points Program

- 1) County fairs do not count towards the points program.
- 2) The Kentucky State Fair will be counted as a points show.
- 3) Animals must be exhibited in one exhibitor's name the day of the show.
- 4) Each time an animal is shown by a different exhibitor, or under a different breed classification, a new set of points will be started in the Kentucky Points Program database.
- 5) If there are not enough entries to make a breed division, the animal will be put in an AOB class, and the points will be counted towards the animal's breed points.

KENTUCKY PROUD POINTS PROGRAM

The following is a list of how many shows will be counted for each exhibitor and animal. An exhibitor may participate in as many shows as their species allows, however, KDA will calculate the points from their best shows according to the following list:
