

Elliott County Farmer's Market

Rules

1. The Elliott County Farmer's Market is open to all producers in Elliott and surrounding counties.
2. Membership is $15 per season.
3. Only produce grown by a member of the Elliott County Farmers' Market may be sold through the market. NO RESELLING IS ALLOWED.
4. Each member will be responsible for cleaning their area when they leave.
5. The Elliott County Farmer's Market will be located at the Elliott County Extension Office at HC 81 Box 483. This is 3 miles South of Sandy Hook on Rt 7.
6. The market will be open on Tuesday and Friday morning at 8am and on Wednesday evenings at 3:30pm.
7. There will be no sales before the market opens.
8. The Market will close will all produce is sold.
9. Sellers are responsible for their own tables and supplies.
10. All produce needs to be clearly marked.
11. All produce must be off the ground.
12. All sellers must abide by the rules of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture in regards to accepting coupons. Sellers must show the same courtesy and Professionalism to coupon customers.
13. All sellers must abide by local health department rules in regards to sampling.
14. A market manager will be on site to coordinate the market.
15. Any person / persons not following these rules will be asked t leave the market.

Market rules updated on May 9, 2006.