Floyd County Farmers' Market Association

This market operates under these rules & regulations which were approved by the membership to ensure fairness to all growers and consumers. Enforcement of all rules is the responsibility of growers and Market manager.

1. You will abide by selling times and days as set forth by membership. Time and days will be Tuesdays beginning at 9:00 am and Fridays beginning at 4:00 pm.
2. You can arrive in sell area at 8:00 am & 3:00 pm and start setting up. No selling outside area will be allowed. No one will be allowed to begin selling or bagging vegetables until 9:00 am & 4:00 pm.
3. You can only sell produce raised by you, family members, and/or others living in adjoining counties and raise 85% of their produce.
4. You must be a resident of a Kentucky county.
5. You shall only sell quality produce. All produce sold shall be clean and free of dirt. All growers present at the day of sale shall meet prior to opening and determine prices for produce offered that day. You can sell at prices above the agreed-upon price if you so desire; however, you may never sell below it.
6. A small amount of local quality crafts may be offered for sale. Items must be produced by a local juried artist. The Market Manager must approve prior to day's opening.
7. You will clean up and remove all trash or waste from immediate area around vehicle (designated sale area) prior to leaving sale area.
8. You will pay $15.00 annual dues for the right to sell at the Farmers' Market. Payment must be made to Market manager and grower's agreement signed and dated before any vendor may sell. A new seller must attend at least one meeting within the next 12 months.
9. You must bring your own scales for weighing produce. Any grower selling by weight must use certified scales and does so at their own risk.
10. Any person not abiding by these rules shall be notified and must come into compliance before resuming sales. Any person who is warned twice about a rule violation from above will be asked not to participate for two sale days in a row. A third violation will result in dismissal for the remainder of the season.
11. Membership has the right to change a rule at regular meetings. After it has been discussed and advertised that it will be voted on at the next regular business meeting. Majority of those present has to agree before a rule can be changed.
12. Annual election of officers will be held at summer meeting in June. The officers elected will be Market Manager (Chair) and Secretary/Treasurer.

The undersigned hereby agree(s) to abide by these regulations of the Floyd County Farmers' Market Association.
