General Rules & Regulations for Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos

1. All entries must conform to the official health regulations governing the exhibition of livestock in Kentucky. All animals exhibited in the Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos shall be identified individually on a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) written in the current calendar year (Jan 1 through Dec 31) See General Health Requirements for more information click here.
2. All goats, sheep, swine, steers & market heifers exhibited at the Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos must be KUIP (Kentucky Uniform Identification Program) tagged and validated.
3. All animals exhibited are eligible to be used in the showmanship and judging contests.
4. The shows are open ONLY to Kentucky youth exhibitors.
5. The shows are open to regularly enrolled 4-H and FFA members engaged in an approved livestock project. All entries must be under the supervision of the extension agent or vocational agriculture instructor.
6. 4-H and FFA exhibitors will show together in all classes.
7. The Kentucky Junior Livestock Expo Show Committees shall have the authority to enforce and interpret any and all rules. The committee's decisions are final.
8. Due to space limitations, exhibitors may be asked by the Show Committee to tighten up or share pen or bedding areas.
9. All livestock must be shown by youth, all adults shall remain outside the show ring. Each exhibitor must show his/her animal unless incapacitated or has more than one entry in the class, then another 4-H or FFA member may show the animal
10. Exhibitors are expected to treat their animals in a manner consistent with good animal husbandry and display proper sportsmanship at all times.
11. The official judges' decisions are final.
12. Owners must furnish all feed and bedding for their animals.
13. If an exhibitor violates any of the rules and regulations of the Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos, they will be denied the opportunity to participate in the events and forfeit all premiums won.
14. All animals exhibited must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor.
15. Exhibitors can show at all three Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos.

Commissioner's Award

A Commissioner's Award (belt buckle) will be presented to an exhibitor in each species. The award is based on points given for the exhibitors performance in showmanship, judging, Skill-a-thon, and the exhibitor's highest placing animal in the show.

One Commissioner's award will be given in each species as follows:

- ¼ Skill-A-Thon- top 10%=10 points
- ¼ Judging- top 10%=1- points
- ¼ Showmanship- based on placings in class with 10 points for 1st place down to 1 point for 10th place
- ¼ Placing in weight class- based on placings in class with 10 points for 1st place down to 1 point for 10th place

1. Results will be calculated by the show committee.
2. Ties will be broken by highest percent of possible points
3. A Commissioner's Buckle may only be awarded to an exhibitor only one time, per species, per year. For example, if you win the Swine Commissioner's Buckle at KJLE East you are not eligible to win another Swine Commissioners Buckle until the next calendar year. If you had another species like beef cattle you could compete for the Beef Commissioner's Buckle but only at KJLE Western Rivers or KJLE in the current calendar year.
4. Only one Commissioner's Buckle per exhibitor per Expo.

Showmanship Classes

1. Showmanship classes will be divided by age as of Jan 1st of the current year. Classes will be broken at the discretion of the show committee.
2. The winner of each species will compete for the Overall Champion of each species.
3. The Overall Champion of each species will compete in the Round Robin Showmanship Competition.
4. All 4-H and FFA members must show their own animals.
5. Heifer and steer exhibitors will show together in beef showmanship
6. Exhibitors can only show in 2 out of 5 showmanship classes at any expo.

NEW For 2026

ALL SPECIES

Each 4-H/FFA Division Winner in Showmanship will donate ONE animal for the Round Robin Competition.

The 2nd place out of the same division as the overall winner will donate ONE animal for the Round Robin Competition.

Refusal to donate will result in disqualification of showmanship placing and premiums.

Round Robin Showmanship Contest

1. The overall champion showman of each species will compete for Supreme Overall Showman at each Kentucky Junior Livestock Expo. Exhibitors will be required to show all species in the Round Robin Contest.
2. The overall champion of each species will have the option to show his/her own animal in the species showmanship they won.
3. Ties will be broken by the highest score in the exhibitors' respective or at the discretion of the committee.
4. All animals entered for exhibition at the Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos are eligible to be used in the Round Robin Contest.
5. The Champion showman will receive a belt buckle. An exhibitor may only win the Round Robin one time per Kentucky Junior Livestock Expo, per show career.

For All Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos Market Animal Check-In

Each exhibitor is responsible for turning in their completed weight cards for each market animal by the time listed for each expo.

Every animal is subject to a re-weigh.

Lambs & Goats must be within five (5) pounds above declared show weight.

Hogs must be within fifteen (15) pounds above declared show weight.

Steers & Market Heifers must be within fifty (50) pounds above declared show weight.

Beef Heifer Show General Rules

1. All Animals must be registered and in the exhibitor's name in order to show in the registered division of the show. Entries must be owned by exhibitor by June 1 of the show year and positively identified per breed association requirements.
2. All animals must be trained in the halter.
3. The maximum number of female entries any exhibitor may show is six (6).
4. Heifers must have been born between September 1, 2024 and April 30, 2026 to compete in the Show. Cow/Calf pairs will be eligible. Calves cannot be older than 210 days.
5. Cow/Calf classes will be shown at the end of each represented breed and will be eligible for overall female of that breed. There will no longer be a division or banners for Cow/Calf at district/expos.
6. No bred and owned bull classes will be offered.
7. Breeds must have five (5) head in order to have a breed show. If the minimum of five head cannot be met, the breed will show in A.O.B. There will be two A.O.B. divisions: percentage and purebred. Percentage cattle with registration papers will show in the percentage A.O.B. classification.
8. A purebred cow with percentage calf will be classed within the breed of the cow.

Commercial Heifer Division

1. All animals must be permanently identified by legible tattoo or brand and be in the possession of the exhibitor by June 1 of the show year
2. Commercial animals can be exhibited in the commercial division only and will show by weight.
3. Any heifer that has been issued a registration certificate by a purebred breed association is not eligible to show in the commercial division.

Beef Market Division

1. Individuals may show a maximum of three (3) market animals, with no more than six (6) total beef entries.
2. MARKET STEERS- Steer breed classes have been added to all beef market shows at the KDA districts and Junior Livestock Expos. All of these steers must follow the guidelines set forth for all steers and must be KUIP tagged. The breed steers must have a registration certificate issued by a breed association. The ownership deadline is March 31 of current calendar year. Breed classes will be offered for breeds with more than 2 head. If there are less than 2 head, those breed steers will show in an A.O.B class. A crossbred steer class will continue to be offered for steers without a registration certificate.
3. Market Steers will be shown by breed and weight with crossbreds following purebreds' classes.
4. Market Heifers will show by weight only, not by breed. A Champion and Reserve Champion Market Heifers will be selected and then show against the Champion and Reserve Champion Steers for Grand/ Reserve Market Animal. Market Heifers must be open.
5. No bulls or bullock will be eligible.
6. All entries must be trained on the halter. Any animal that is considered by the Show Committee to be a hazard to exhibitors, spectators, etc. will be excused from the show and will be ineligible for class placement and premiums.

Goat Show General Rules

1. Exhibitors may enter market does or wethers. All goats must be clean castrated (banded or surgically removed. Clamping is not allowed.) prior to the arrival on the grounds. All scrotal tissue is to be removed.
2. Goat exhibitors may show a total of four (4) entries, be it market goats or wether dam.
3. Wether Dams will be show by weight and have two divisions (Slick and Fitted).
4. Novice Showmanship and Weight Classes: The class is open to exhibitors eight years of age and under as of January 1 of the show year regardless of prior show experience. Novice exhibitors are limited to one entry and MUST show his/her own goat. The Novice winner is not eligible for the Overall Grand Champion.
5. All goats must weight a minimum of 35 pounds at the time of the show to be eligible for exhibition.
6. Division Champions (light weight, medium weight, heavy weight) will be selected.

Hog Show General Rules

1. Registered classes will be offered for market hogs and breeding gilts. Registration papers, bill of sale, or note from the breeder should be brought to weigh-in in order to show registered classes or they will be shown in the crossbred classes. For all Kentucky Junior Livestock Expos-bring registration papers when turning in card.
2. Each breed must have five (5) head to have a breed show. If five head cannot be met, hogs can be shown in the A.O.B division.
3. Classes will be determined by breed and weight, divided as equally as possible among the classes.
4. Barrows and/or gilts are eligible to be shown.
5. Any animal on-foot showing evidence of staginess, incomplete castration, crippling, or disease will be eliminated.
6. Novice Showmanship and Weight Classes: Open to exhibitors who are eight years of age and under as of January 1 of the show year regardless of prior show experience. Novice exhibitors MUST show his/her own hog and are limited to one entry in weight class. The Novice winner is not eligible for the Overall Grand Champion.
7. Breeding Gilts and Market Hogs will be shown by weight.
8. Swine exhibitors may show a total of six (6) entries, be it market hogs or commercial gilts.

Market Lamb Show General Rules

1. Wool lambs must be docked, clean castrated, and the animal must be shorn slick above the knee and hock joint (1/4 inch or less) prior to check-in. The minimum weight limit is 60 pounds, with no upper weight limit. All blankets must be removed for inspection before entering check-in.
2. Hair lambs must be clean castrated. Docking is optional. The minimum weight limit is 35 pounds with no upper weight limit. All blankets must be removed for inspection before entering check-in. No artificial color may be used. NO muzzles, etc., may be used at any time.
3. Induced cryptorchids, short scrotum lambs and ram lambs may not be shown.
4. Lambs will show by breed and weight. Classes will be broken at the discretion of the show committee.
5. There must be five (5) lambs in order to have a breed show. If five (5) head cannot be met, lambs will show in the A.O.B. division.
6. All breeds shall be declared at time of validation. Once a breed has been declared, it cannot be changed throughout the show season, with the exception of changing an entry to a crossbred class prior to weigh-in or turning in card. Once changed, classification cannot be reversed throughout the show season.
7. Lamb exhibitors may show a total of six (6) entries, be it market lams or commercial ewe lambs.
8. Novice Showmanship and Weight Classes: The class is open to exhibitors eight years of age and under as of January 1 of the show year regardless of the prior show experience. Novice exhibitors are limited to one entry and MUST show his/her own lamb in weight class. The Novice winner is not eligible for the Overall Grand Champion.

Dairy Show General Rules

1. All registered animals must be registered in the name(s) of the 4-H Club member(s) or FFA member(s) exhibiting them and registration papers must be shown to the superintendent of the show. The transfer of registration or date of ownership, as prescribed by particular breed associations, must be recorded in the breed office prior to June 1 of the current year. If the registration certificate has not been received from the breed association, a statement from the association that the transfer has been recorded prior to June 1 will be acceptable.
2. All grade animals will be shown must be the bona fide property of the 4-H Club member or FFA member and part of the member's program. Certificates of ownership of grade animals must be shown on approval forms and presented at the time of checking in animals. These forms are to be completed prior to arriving at the show.
3. Chapter or Club members participating in the lease program must have possession of the animal by June 1 of the current year.
4. Registered and grade animals will be shown in competition with each other within their respective breed classes.
5. No 4-H or FFA members will be permitted to show more than six (6) animals.
6. Only female animals will be eligible to show.
7. Each Kentucky Junior Livestock Expo will start with showmanship, followed by cow classes then heifers.
